NATIONAL LAW FIRM TO SPONSOR ST PAT'S

National law firm Slater & Gordon is proud to be part of an iconic racing event – the annual St Pat's races at Broken Hill.

The firm will sponsor the Slater & Gordon Maiden Plate over 900 metres at the 42nd annual St Pat's race meeting on March 24 2007.

Slater & Gordon merged earlier this year with Broken Hill firm Paul J Keady & Associates which had sponsored the maiden event for many years, with Buckworth Keady lawyers.

Slater & Gordon's Tim Downie says the firm may be new to Broken Hill, but, through Paul Keady and Associates, the firm has inherited a long standing involvement with Broken Hill St Patrick's Race Club.

"We're delighted to be part of such a significant community event as the annual St Pat's Day meeting," Mr Downie said.
