NEW RESERVOIR OFFICE

Slater & Gordon's latest office – at Reservoir in Melbourne's northern suburbs – has quickly proved to be a hit with locals.

Barrie Woollacott, who heads the Reservoir team, says client comments since the August 27 opening have been very positive.

"People say they're rapt that we've come to them, and that they don't have to make the trip into town anymore," he said.

"They appreciate that they can get the expertise of a major city law firm with the convenience of a visit to the local shopping centre."

Barrie Woollacott heads a team of seven at the new Reservoir office. He assists clients with cases of public liability and workers compensation, while Genevieve Grant and senior TAC lawyer Janine Gregory handle claims for those injured in motor vehicle accidents.

The Reservoir office can also help with other areas of law, by arranging for legal advice from the team at the main office in Melbourne. In the longer term it is likely that the range of legal services directly available at Reservoir will also increase.
