

Shareholder Loss and Corporate Governance Solutions

For asset owners and fund managers litigation can be an appropriate option when dealing with an under performing asset or investment.

Slater & Gordon is a leader in the provision of legal advice and dispute resolution services in the area of corporate malfeasance and shareholder loss. While shareholder recovery litigation in Australia remains at a relatively early stage of development, the frequency of claims and development of jurisprudence is fast accelerating. The laws and practice within Australia are developing on their own trajectory.

Slater & Gordon has committed to a series of principles which will guide our approach to the conduct of litigation on behalf of aggrieved investors.

Our national Project Litigation team is available to assist you with all aspects of this emerging area of law. Our team offers advice, dispute resolution and allied services in the following areas:

Continuous disclosure;

Board & management duties & misconduct;

Shareholder recovery class actions;

Members' derivative actions;

Litigation funding assessment; and

Investment portfolio monitoring.
